TAX REFORM BODY

ALL TENTS ARE PITCHED

BAN ANTONIO, Oct. 7.—Troop A. Dis-mined to satisfy the mercantile and triet of Columbia Cavairy, spent its first other business establishments that are entire day at Camp Wilson getting things in order.

Without a hitch tents were pitched esterday and the men made themselves yesterday and the men made themselves thoroughly at home.

At sunrise the men were hustled o't of bed and given half an hour setting-up exercises to shake off the stiffness of five days' travel. Immediately after morning mesa all were armed with picks and shovels and ordered to dig ditches around their tents and drainage trenches for their section of the enormous camp grounds. The troopers are camped near the Illinois and Wisconsin artillery, and have already gotten on the most friendly terms with their fellow-militiamen.

Third Due Tomorrow.

The Third Regiment, scheduled to arrive here temorrow, will be camped a considerable distance from the cavalry, as the various branches of the service are kept together. Captain Washburn as the various branches of the service are kept together. Captain Washburn granted all the men passes last night after their tents had been pitched and the kitchen properly equipped. The men spent several hours in San Antonio visiting the Alamo, Buck Horn Tavern, and parading up and down the main streets of the city. At 11 o'clock they were ordered back to camp by the large provost detail kept in the city to prevent the men from overstaying their leave.

Camp Wilson is a city itself with more than 15,000 soldiers camped there and thousands of army trucks scooting here and there at breakneck speed furnishing supplies to the men.

Next week remounts, horses which have never had a saddle or bridle on them, will be issued to the troopers. It will be the task of the militia men to break and train the wild animals into docile cavalry mounts. The expert horsemen in the troop are smiling over the prospects of seeing the inexperienced riders handling the remounts. Four batteries of Virginia artillery, commanded by Major Worthem and Captain Johnson, arrived here today and were ordered to camp near the District soldiers.

Captain Washburn is to report to General Funaton when that officer returns from Laredo late today.

Captains Anderson and Jackson, quartermaster's corps, met the incoming troops on their arrival at the station yesterday, and the men and their equipment were conveyed in army trucks to the camp, three miles away.

Men of Third Inoculated.

The only tents remaining now are those of the First Separate Battalion, occupied by the recruits for that organization still encamped on the site of the mobilization camp.

Those officers who were left behind when the District contingent of militia entrained for the Mexican border have been assigned to recruiting duty. What disposition will be made of General Harvey, after the court-martial in Richmond, of which he is president, is not kpown.

He may be mustered out or assigned to some post either on the Mexican border or elsewhere, and remain in this position until the District organizations are mustered out of the service on their return from the Southwest.

The District of Columbia infantry is the first body of troops to receive protection from a fever which has been troublesome to troops on the border.

Colonel Young last night received word from Major Joseph F. Hodgson, commanding the first section, that Karl Shaeffer, sixteen-year-old son of the band leader, had been smuggled aboard with Company D, and that he was being left at Hinton to await the arrival of his father on the second section.

Colonel Young sent the boy back to his father on the second section.

Colonel Young sent the boy back to Washington. He is an accomplished musician, but could not be enlisted because he is under the prescribed 20pound weight limit.

At Lexington, Ky., the third section was taken for a short hike by Major

Summers.

By these hikes it is hoped to keep the men in good condition until the border is reached. Officers were to be exercised this evening at Louisville.

October realty trading started most auspiciously. The brokers in the initial week of the month completed 161 deals in which were involved 248 parcels of real estate. This number of transactions is ten in excess of the record for the closing week of September, and is only four less than in the opening days of October, 1915.

In the volume of trading the past week excels by forty-one lots the activity of the corresponding days of 1915, and is fifty-eight lots in advance of the business of the preceding week. The feature of the past week's business was the appearance or the District Commissioners among the loyders of money on the security of real estate. This is a new role for the city fath-of Commissioners perpetual trustees of the unexpended funds from inaugural guarantee contributions and the funds have reached $8,000. Yesterday nearly $1,000 worth of business was transacted, represented chiefly in the sale of stamps, money orders and rental of lock boxes.

Many of the merchafts and business men who signed the petition nearly a year ago to have a branch office established in the downtown section, though they have not yet transferred their lockboxes from the main postoffice, called to inspect the new branch and congratulate Postmaster Chance and Superintendent Beall.

Tuesday Busy Day.

Last Tuesday proved the busiest day the brokers have experienced since mid-July. In closing forty-two transactions they were only eight sales short of the year's record for a single day's business. Monday reported twenty-four deals and twenty-three trades were effected on the half holiday of Saturday. Wednesday had the poorest showing with only twenty trades to its credit.

Nearly half the week's trading was in the outlying suburbs, where 115 parcels changed owners. The near-urban district ranked, second with forty-seven lots transferred, followed by the northwest with thirty-four lots to its credit. There were twenty-one lots sold in the northeast, sixteen in the southeast, and fitteen in the southwest.

Medium priced property had the call of the market and there were few transactions closed at high prices. Probably the most valuable property purchased during the week was premises 221 G street northwest bought by Mabel K. Linkins from Charles J. Langmead. BUTTERFLY" IS SUNG FOR THIRD TIME HERE

"Madame Butterfly" was sung for the third time by the Aborn English Grand Opera Company at the New National last night, and the reception accorded it indicated that the Puccini opera has lost none of its popularity. Bianca Saroya gave an appealing interpretation of the role of Cho-Che-San, the hapless maid of Japan, and Marie Louise Biggers sang the part of Suzuki effectively. Salvatore Glordane and Louis D'Angelo gave satisfactory renditions of the respective roles of Pinkerton and Sharpless.

The new car is to be formally presented to Howard on October 12, at Indianapolis.

While the old car bears little resemblance to the one-cylinder Pioneer Haynes now on exhibition at the Smithsonian Institution here, it is a product of the first days of the automobile industry. One feature that particularly marks its period of manufacture is the use of air-operated exhaust valves in the place of valves mechanically operated by the camshaft, that were of later appearance. The two-cylinder double-opposed motor is mounted directly over the rear axle.

This old "horseless carriage" is in good condition. It has never been repainted, and there have been no mechanical changes or repairs of consequence. The original upholstery is still in use, although it shows considerable wear.
